Announcements

Brad chaired our meeting today in Kathy's absence.

Brad encourages us to take a look at our Club's website, and advises there is a facility to upload "The Timeball", for all to see.

Brad reminds us of the Changeover on July 1st Flyer will be sent with all the information

Yvonne mentioned the Lift the Lid on Mental Health day and the Early Act kids to be involved. they were suggesting different ideas of hats to wear ..possible local paper to be involved, and donations to start in September.

Eddie is looking at the Williamstown Football Club for our weekly Club meetings, and also our Changeover event scheduled for July 1st

Dr Daryl Moran from Sandridge School & the Early Act programme.

Past President Brad Saunders, introduced Daryl Moran and the kids from the Early Act Club at the Sandridge School to conduct their changeover.

An inspiring group of kids, shared their lunch with our Rotary members before they had their changeover. Past President Brad explained our Trivia Quiz, which the kids enjoyed, especially the chocolates.

Ella Demasi, the outgoing President of the Early Act Club, introduced her group and welcomed all to our Rotary meeting.

Mitchell read the 4 Way Test to all at the meeting
His quote for the day - No Elevator to Success, you have to take to the Stairs

Treasures Report - Archie announced the amount of $3,152.00 to enable to purchase 2 Shelter boxes and leave a float for more to be purchased

The class then presented a powerpoint presentation to us all on their own individual ipads.

The changeover then took place with new current President Ella Demasi handing over the reigns to the incoming President James Valland.

Minute Secretary Zeb
Correspondence Jackson
Treasurer Alex

The committee were then introduced and James thanked all in attendance and thanked the Rotary Club of Williamstown .

As a member of our Rotary club I am inspired by the Early Act programme and the way the kids conduct themselves.
Remember they are only 10 and 11 years old, the future leaders we are in good hands ---Yvonne Moon Community Service Director
